Tuition: $160 payable to Dr. Riegel: 786 Harcourt Rd., Grosse Pointe Park 48230 no later than November 7. For more information, contact Dr. Riegel at alexriegel@post.harvard.edu

Friday, COMPASSIONATE HEALING THROUGH TONGLEN MEDITATION

Nov 16 Presentation by Sandy Naimou. "Tonglen" is a traditional form of meditation in Tibetan Buddhism. In the practice, one meditates on tong or "giving" happiness and len or "taking" pain from another through breath and visualization. The meditation, passed on for over 900 years, is a powerful tool for self-transformation. Sandy Naimou, M.L.A., E-RYT 200, teaches yoga full-time and has been practicing Tonglen consistently for over seven years. She will discuss the history, purposes, challenges, and benefits of this compassion exercise.

Friday, Nov 23 → Closed

Friday, REINCARNATION: WHO AND WHAT REINCARNATES AND HOW DOES IT HAPPEN?

Nov 30 Lecture by David Zimmerman. Recent discoveries in Quantum Entanglement and Non-Locality now point to the anatomical sites and psychological effects of what Theosophy has called "the permanent atom". David will discuss information concerning the qualities, tendencies and compatibilities from our past lives, contained in the mental, astral and physical matter in which we're re clothed for a new incarnation. David is an astrologer, esotericist, and member of The Theosophical Society.
